MRS. PARKER PIONEER BRYAN CITIZEN DIED THIS MORNING AT 10:35

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Bryan and Brazos county today mourns the death of one of her faithful and pioneer citizens, Mrs. M. J. Parker, who died this morning at 10:30 o'clock at her home, following an illness of more than nine weeks. Mrs. Parker was 79 years old and if she had lived until the 22nd of this month would have been 80 years old. Funeral services conducted by Rev. S. Moylan Bird, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, will be held Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the home.

RAIN WORTH MUCH TO CROPS OF BRAZOS CO.

Rain began falling in Bryan Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock and according to the rain gauge .89 of an inch fell in a very short time. The rain was more or less local, as there were many farms in the Brazos Bottom that didn't get any at all. Farmers of this section seem to be well pleased with the rain, which has fallen here in the past two or three days and state that if it is not followed by too much rain, it will prove to be greatly beneficial to growing crops. The total precipitation in Bryan since Saturday, according to U. S. government gauge at the George A. Adams, Insurance Agency, has amounted to about two inches. The rain will especially benefit corn, the older corn being at a stage, where the rain should insure a good yield. It is said the corn crop in this section of Brazos county is better than for a number of years at this time of the year and prospects are good for a splendid yield. Cotton in most places is doing splendidly and is considered in good condition. Crop prospects for old Brazos look mighty good.

LOOKS LIKE OIL FIELD FOR NAVASOTA SOON

Progress on the Day-Cuthrell well, No. 1, has been all that could be hoped for, and a depth of 1043 feet had been reached Sunday night, when the bit hit hard rock after having passed out of stiff gumbo. The formation is running true to expectations, derived from other dome wells on the coastal trend.

Representatives of some of the major producing companies have been here to select locations, and several others have arranged for an early appointment. Leases are daily changing hands and the hotels begin to show the oil uniform, daily, worn by the strangers visiting the field. One visitor said today that the people of this city have slight realization of what the development of an oil field where this test is being made, will mean to Navasota and what Navasota will be obliged to care for. All who have investigated this structure, express most sanguine expectations, and predictions are made that a real producer may be looked for before the first of the month.—Navasota Examiner-Review.

BRAZOS COUNTY CANNING

A. W. Orr, representative of the Dixie Canning Company, Little Rock who has been in Brazos county for the past few days assisting County Home Demonstration Agent Miss Laura Belle Roten in canning demonstrations at Edge, Wellborn and Steep Hollow, is leaving Bryan today. Mr. Orr was formerly county agent of Polk county and has given some valuable information on canning while in the county.

Three railroad damage suits were called in district court today: H. H. Young vs. H. & T. C. Railway Co., Miss Lenora Bishop vs. H. & T. C. Railway Company and Mrs. Mary Weintzer vs. H. & T. C. Railway. The two first cases involve the injury of Mrs. H. H. Young and two daughters, Lyndall and Ora Lee and Miss Lenora Bishop, when the auto in which they were riding was hit by an H. & T. C. train at the crossing at 28th street about a year ago. The railroad is represented by O. L. Strubling of Waco and Robert Armstrong of Bryan. County Attorney Oak McKenzie, Hon. Tom Buffington and Bush Leigh of Anderson are attorneys for the plaintiffs. Cases are to be tried by jury.

BRASWELL ELECTED AT GALVESTON MEETING HEADS TEXAS EDITORS

The Texas Press Association held at Galveston last week, adjourned Saturday afternoon after electing officers and selecting Amarillo as the meeting place for next year. Sam M. Braswell, editor of the Clarendon News, was elected president and A. H. Luker, editor of the Grapeland Messenger, vice president. There is a custom in the press association to elect the vice president as the succeeding president, but Will L. West who was elected vice president from Lufkin at Denton last year having retired from active newspaper work became ineligible to succeed to the presidency and Mr. Braswell who has served as assistant secretary for a number of years was unanimously chosen for the vacancy. Other officers elected were: Sam Harben, Richardson, secretary, (re-elected); Clarence Gilmore, Austin, attorney (re-elected); Arthur Lefevre, essayist; Arthur Shannon, Wharton, orator; M. P. Loomis, Canadian, poet; E. G. Senter Dallas, historian; L. S. Nunn, Amarillo, custodian of the flag. Four new members of the executive committee are: George A. T. New Sam Holloway, W. A. Smith and E. A. Carlock. Sam P. Harben was appointed field secretary, his duties being to solicit advertisements for various members of the association, to work in the interest of the association throughout the state, and to watch the legislative situation at Austin when the legislature is in session.

Jackson Extends Invitation

In attendance at the Galveston meeting from Bryan and College were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wallace, S. C. Hoyie, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Martin, A. D. Jackson and Miss M. Helen Higgins, state agent of the home demonstration division of the Extension Service. Invitation was extended to the members of the association to attend the Writers' Conference to be held at A. & M. College from July 24 to July 29, in connection with the Farmers' Short Course. A. D. Jackson extended the invitation and conveyed to the body the regret of Bryan and College at being unable to extend an invitation to meet at College in the year of 1924 due to the state of suspension of appropriations in the legislature which might eventuate in the College being entirely unable to supply quarters for the visitors. Announcement was made, however that a pressing invitation would be extended at Amarillo for the 1925 meeting as it is very much desired that a meeting of the association may be held at the A. & M. College which will give opportunity for the press of the state to study the college at first hand and at the same time have opportunity to see this splendid section of Texas through which they have passed for years without opportunity to stop and examine a region that has been of leading importance since the settlement of Texas by the white man. The usual boat ride and sight-seeing features accorded conventions in Galveston were extended the press gang.

FOUR PRISONERS BREAK JAIL AT FRANKLIN BUT THEY ARE RECAPTURED

Two white men and two negroes break jail at Franklin, Robertson county, Monday afternoon, according to a telephone message from Sheriff W. E. Thompson of Franklin to Sheriff L. E. Morehead. It is stated that Sheriff Thompson had let the men out of their cells into the run-around that the cells might be scrubbed and cleaned. In this way the prisoners climbed on top of the cells and dug their way out through the top of the roof and jumped to the ground. In escaping they were noticed by some children, who gave the alarm and in a very short time Sheriff Thompson joined by a band of Franklin citizens gave chase and they were all captured in less than a half mile from the jail.

THEY MADE A MISTAKE

Messrs. D. L. Wilson and M. P. Elliott of the Chambers-Wilson Motor Company, went to Houston Saturday to attend a big picnic at Sylvan Beach, given for the benefit of the Ford dealers, but due to some cause not clearly explained, they mixed up with a local Sunday school picnic in progress on the beach but finally they extricated themselves and found their kindred spirits and fellow dealers.

BRAZOS COUNTY HAS ONE CAR FOR EVERY THIRTEEN CITIZENS

Texas, at the beginning of 1923, had one motor vehicle for each 9.4 inhabitants, according to a survey by the Liberty Central Trust Co., St. Louis, showing automobile distribution in the State, by counties. The figures are based on official registration totals, and allow conservatively for population changes since the 1920 census.

In the greater part of Texas, including the Panhandle, the west, and many of the central, northern, south-central and southwestern counties, the population per car is less than 10. In some localities it is below 5. In the east central and southern counties, as well as in scattered counties elsewhere, the number of inhabitants per automobile varies for the most part between 10 and 20. There is a fairly well defined district, comprising a number of counties in the east and northeast, where the ratio exceeds 20, although usually under 40. Most of the counties in the latter section have relatively large negro populations.

More Autos In West.

Roughly speaking the "density" of automobiles in Texas becomes greater as one travels from east to west or, more properly, from east to northwest. In giving figures for individual counties, it is pointed out that in some instances, particularly those involving oil districts and other localities where special influences have caused sudden changes in population, estimates of "density" can not be accurate. In the majority of cases, the data are probably correct enough to present a fairly true picture. The estimated population per car in Brazos county is given as 13.5.

KNOB PRAIRIE CLUB IN A SPLENDID MEETING

The Knob Prairie boys and girls' club, under the leadership of Miss Ray Wilcox, had one of its most interesting meetings Saturday night, club songs, helpful talks, music, exciting contests, etc., being some of the features of the evening program. Miss Roten, Home Demonstration Agent, made announcement of the club encampment of June 28-29, and asked that Miss Wilcox act as chaperon for the girls of that community.

District Agent A. W. Buchanan made an excellent talk, saying he was so glad to see the people of the community, as well as the boys and girls, taking an interest in those things that stand for better farming, better citizens and a better country.

"Brazos County Day."

Announcement was made of "Brazos County Day," and the hope expressed that several boys and girls from the Knob Prairie community would attend the entire week of the Short Course, July 22-28.

In the banana-eating contest Sam Saladin was by far the swiftest, easily winning the prize, a large stick of barber pole candy. It was announced that at the next meeting there would be another contest, not in banana eating but pie eating and it was plainly discernible on the countenance of club members present that Sam would have to show even greater speed next time in order to maintain his reputation for "hiding" good things to eat. Lee Saladin pleased the audience with some excellent music on the accordion.

4,000 PEOPLE MADE HOMELESS BY DISASTROUS FLOOD IN OKLAHOMA

Tulsa In Grip of Most Disastrous Flood In History of City—Water Works Plant Forced to Close Down—Negro Killed When He Dived from a Bridge and Struck His Head.

(By Associated Press)

TULSA, Okla., June 13.—Flood waters of the Arkansas river fastened their hold on Tulsa and vicinity today. The most disastrous flood in the history of the city. The water works plant was forced to close down, leaving Tulsa virtually unprotected against fire. Desperate efforts were made to keep the plant of the Oklahoma Power company from being flooded. The Texas Company's refinery was shut down because of the water. Between 3,000 and 4,000 persons are homeless, mostly in West Tulsa and Sand Springs. Only one death has been reported. A negro was killed when he dived from a bridge and his head struck a sharp object. The river is 19-10 feet above normal this morning and it is expected to continue rising for the next 36 hours. The damage to property is estimated at $500,000.

No greater work can be done by any organization that the care and safe-guarding of the boys of our land. In them we make our greatest investment. The De Molay organization has for its purpose the instilling of reverence for God, justice, loyalty and truth as exemplified in purity, cleanliness of life, rectitude of conduct. GRASSHOPPERS REPORTED BAD IN BURLESON CO

CALDWELL, Texas, June 13—Large numbers of grasshoppers have made their appearance in Burleson county and in some places are doing lots of damage to the crops. They are being poisoned and no great amount of damage is expected from this source. Crop conditions in this county are fine, but corn needs rain.

ALL OF BRYAN AND BRAZOS COUNTY MOURNS DEATH MRS. M. J. PARKER

All Bryan and Brazos county today mourn the passing of Mrs. Mary Johnston Parker, a prominent pioneer woman, whose long and useful life has been a blessing and a benediction, not only to her immediate family and friends, but to her city and county as well. Full of years and of honor, having rounded out the allotted "three score and ten," surrounded by her children, grandchildren and great grand-children, in the dear old family home in this city, where her long and useful life was spent, she fell asleep Tuesday morning, June 12, at 10:30 a. m. Quietly and peacefully, as a child asleep in its mother's arms she passed into eternal rest, as she closed her eyes upon this world, and her noble spirit slipped away to the Great Beyond. As a beautiful sunset at the close of a "Perfect Day" so death came to this beloved and useful woman. The shadows lengthened, the vigor and strength of the natural life waned near the western hills, but the glory the beauty, the inspiration of her life shone on in wondrous brilliancy, even as life's sun went down.

Wonderful Mother.

Mrs. M. J. Parker was a wonderful Christian "Mother," in all that the blessed word implies, for not only her own children knew her ministrations but her loving arms were thrown around the orphan, the unfortunate, the needy, as well. In her death are bereaved not only her own noble daughters and son, but many, far and near, to whom she was adopted "Mother," friend, advisor, and counsellor. Two nephews of Mr. Parker, John P. and James O. Chance bereaved of father and mother when but small lads, were reared by Mr. and Mrs. Parker in their home, as their own sons, into manhood's estate. A niece, Beatrice Parker, later known to Bryan friends as Mrs. Addie Gordon, an orphan from her early childhood, was reared by Mrs. Parker, and when, with the changing

Officials of the company today report that indications are good and all is running smoothly and they look for an early completion of the well.

CITY COMMISSION IN FINAL DECISION OF STREETS TO BE PAVED

An adjourned meeting of the city commission was held Monday night at 8 o'clock at the city hall for the purpose of hearing objections to paving streets as advertised. Some twenty-five or more property owners were present and the following commissioners present: Mayor Tyler Haswell, Wilson Bradley, Major L. L. McInnis and H. A. Burger, Commissioner E. J. Jenkins absent on account of being out of town. Secretary Guy P. Bittle at the desk. After much discussion, hearings on this notice were closed and declared final. Streets ordered paved were: Bryan street, 24th to 22nd; 29th street, Bryan to Sterling; Sterling street, 28th to 29th.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Sample of Tabor was in Bryan today.

Mary Jane Johnston was born at Cadis, O., June 22, 1844. Early in life she came with her parents to Texas and was reared near Caldwell, in Burleson county. She was educated at Baylor College, and was a member of the graduating class at Old Independence, in June, 1865. In October, 1865, she was married at the home of her parents in Burleson county, to M. Parker, and soon after their marriage they came to Bryan and built their home, where the family has lived continuously during the past 50 years. The father passed on several years ago, and this wonderful mother, though left alone, has kept the dear old home the same haven of peace and rest and loving kindness for all those who came within its portals. Four children survive her: Mrs. Mary Carr, Bryan; Mrs. Winifred Bain and Mrs. P. S. Tilson, Houston; M. B. Parker, Bryan, and also 12 grand children and five great grand-children. She is also survived by one aged brother, W. T. Johnston of Chriesman, Texas, who was with her when death came.

Biographical Sketch.

The funeral services were conducted at the family home, Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock by Rev. S. Moylan Bird of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, interment following in the family lot at the city cemetery. Pall bearers were: Honorary, Gen. H. E. W. Crenshaw, R. A. Harrison, E. H. Astin and J. D. Martin.

"ANGELS OF LIGHT"

Hon. J. Felton Lane of Hearne, editor of the Hearne Democrat, and known throughout Texas as the "Tall Sycamore of the Brazos," responded to the address of welcome at the Texas Press Association at Galveston, this week for the "Fourth Estate." And thus Hearne and Robertson county was honored by the honoring of one of her distinguished citizens. Judge Lane in his talk interestingly told of development of the newspaper industry in 470 years of existence, "Newspapers have been the Angels of Light" that have shaken empires and moulded governments as a monument to the high ideals of the profession. "In 1625 England had her first newspaper and 25 years later Charles I lost his head. In 1704 James Franklin started the Boston News, which Benjamin continued after the former was put in jail for his editorials. As a result of the seed sown then King George III lost his colonies and the declaration of independence and the constitution were evolved," said Mr. Lane.

I AM YOUR TOWN

Make me what you will—I shall reflect you as clearly as a mirror throws back a candle beam. I am pleasing to the eye of the stranger within my gates; if I am such a sight as, having seen me, he will remember me all the days a thing of beauty, the credit is yours. Ambition and opportunity call some of my sons and daughters to high tasks and mighty privilege, to my greater honor and to my good repute in the far places, but it is chiefly these who are my strength. My strength is those who remain who are content with what I can afford them, and with what I can offer me. It was the greatest of all Romans who said, "Better be first in a little Iberian village than be second in Rome." I am more than wool and brick and stone, more even than flesh and blood—I am the composite soul of all who call me Home. I am your town.—American Legion Weekly.

SUPPORT YOUR PAPER

"Each year the local paper gives from $500 to $1,000 in free lines to the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this. The editor in proportion to his means does more for his home town than any other ten men, and with all fairness he ought to be supported—not because you like him or admire his writings, but because you like him or admire his writings but because the local paper is the best investment the community can make. It may not be brilliantly edited or crowded with thought, but financially it is of more benefit to the community than the preacher or teacher. Understand me, I do not mean mentally, and yet on moral questions you will find most of the papers on the right side. Today the editors of the local papers do the most for the least money of any people on earth." (This is an extract from a speech delivered by Governor Frances of Missouri.)

AND YET THEY KICK

In many of the counties in Texas more money is received from the state for educational purposes than are paid for taxes all together. In Madison county for 1922, $38,362.17 was paid into the state treasury by the taxpayers of this county; poll taxes as well as property taxes. Records in the county superintendent's office show that Madison county will receive $48,779.00 which makes $10,416.83 more this year for school purposes, than we pay to the state in all taxes; and yet we kick about taxation. The above does not include Federal aid for vocational training and money paid by the state and federal governments for our county and home demonstration agents, which amounts to about $2500 more.—Madisonville Meteor.

THE REAPERS

The old Biblical truth, "As ye sow so shall ye reap," is as true today as when it was written. This is a well-balanced world. You either make good or make trouble for yourself. No man can evade very long the consequences of a mispent life. Those who pursue pleasure as their sole aim ultimately take a horizontal position in six feet of earth in some potter's field. They die broke. Self-indulgence is self-inflicted disease. Living in luxury ends in divorce or in distress. Gluttony is gout. Moonshine is misery. Extravagant pleasure is in the end a ticket for the bread line. And the trouble with the most of us, we will read this and call it "bunk"—call it preaching; but the world is full of high-rollers today who will be flat tires next year.—Albany News.

WHAT IS COLLEGE SPIRIT?

Some one has said college spirit is: "A bold and hardy determination to cultivate and discipline our powers, with the aid of all that men have learned before us; and then to pour the whole stream of our power into the noble tasks of our time."

The man who figured out that one fly lays about a million eggs can now say, "I told you so."

TRIBUTE PAID EDITORS WHO HAD PASSED ON DURING PAST YEAR

(From Galveston News)
GALVESTON, June 8.—In the midst of the convention program yesterday the nearly 300 editors of Texas newspapers arose from their chairs, and, with bowed heads, paid tribute to the memory of four well-known men whom death during the past year has taken from the ranks of the profession.

The list includes John G. Rankin Brenham; Sam McNaughton, San Marcos; W. A. Johnson, former lieutenant governor, Memphis, and Lee J. Rountree, Bryan, representative from Brazos county, who died recently upon the floor of the house of representatives. Before the service President Chesnut called Senator Tom W. Perkins of McKinney to the chair and Henry Edwards of Troupe read off list of the dead, paying in well chosen words a short tribute to the memory of each departed member of the association.

A RESOLUTION.

At a recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors the following resolution of respect on the death of Hon. Lee J. Rountree was unanimously adopted according to the Navesota Examiner-Review:

Whereas, the Hon. Lee J. Rountree was, on the second day of May, 1923, called to his eternal reward and, Whereas, We are conscious of the great loss his going means to his home city, to Navesota, a neighboring city, to the state at large and to the church and all religious organizations, the cause of which he was an ardent champion.

Therefore, Be it resolved, that by these resolutions we express something of our feelings in the loss of the passing of a Southern gentleman one who was an unyielding patriot, a true Christian and one who never compromised with wrong. One who was endowed with a kindly spirit and good will toward his fellowman, one whose virtue and spotless Christian character had attracted to him a multitude of faithful friends both in church and state and held their affection and esteem through life that was full of good works for his home community, his church, the intellectual welfare of this and coming generations and for other agencies and causes that tend to make our country a better and more prosperous place in which to live. Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the local paper for publication and also that a copy be furnished to the bereaved wife.

J. T. SWANSON.

STATE OF TEXAS SHOULD PROFIT BY WARNING

The Oklahoma A. & M. College situation is an evidence of how politics works when it gets into state schools. Mr. Wilson, because he was a good organizer for a political party and a strong supporter of the present governor with no qualifications of scholarship or training in school work, was appointed to the presidency of the school. The selection of men to steer the destiny of great educational institutions with no other fitness than that of being a successful party organizer, can only bring disaster to the institutions. Texas should take warning and see to it that her educational institutions are removed from politics.

A man in El Paso was relieved of his pocketbook while kneeling at the altar in prayer. This gives confirmation to the great truth we need to "watch as well as pray."

There is no den in the wide world to hide a rogue. Commit crime and the earth is made of glass. Commit a crime, and it seems as if a coat of snow fell on the ground, such as reveals in the woods the track of every partridge and fox and squirrel.—Emerson.

During the absence of Mrs. Dona Carnes, society editor, who is spending the summer in California, Mrs. A. J. Buchanan will edit the society page, and we extend advance thanks to all patrons and friends for any favors shown.

M. E. WALLACE HOME IS SLIGHTLY DAMAGED BY FIRE ON THURSDAY

The fire alarm on Thursday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock, sent the fire trucks to the home of Marvin Wallace in the southwest part of the city and near the scene of the fire earlier in the day that destroyed the home of Bill Williams, where the exterior of the house had caught fire at one corner. The painter had been removing paint with a blow torch and the house caught fire. A board had to be chopped off in order to allow entrance to extinguish the blaze which was about the extent of the damage done.

AGGIES AREN'T WORRIED

(By Jinx Tucker)
Talked to a number of Aggie cadets who have just recently returned home from their summer vacation, and they declare that Texas does not worry them, but their greatest fear on the gridiron for next year is Baylor and S. M. U. A & M. didn't worry Texas last year or in 1921 and it is not necessary to state what happened. A little worrying before that annual Thanksgiving encounter whatever the odd might be may save many heartaches after.

Texas has great material and this year will have a coach. The Steers will be hard to stop this fall whatever may be said to the contrary. Seems to us the championship should lie among Texas, Arkansas and the Aggies with the advantage in favor of the Razorbacks because of their schedule which does not call for a game with either Texas or A & M. The Razorbacks with a powerful, veteran team greatly strengthened by transfer talent should win from Oklahoma A. and M., Rice Baylor and S. M. U. Adv.

PHILIP ENDLER KURTEN, RAISES MAMMOTH ONIONS

Philip Endler of Kurten is a farmer who seems to do things on a large scale—that is if the sample of Bermuda onion he sent in to the Eagle office is any indication of the size of the products he raises. The onion is six inches in diameter, through the largest way, has a circumference of nearly 20 inches around and a depth of nearly three inches. It weighs, according to the figures given us, a pound and a half. It is truly a mammoth specimen of onion of any variety and if true, as reported, that he has many more such onions, he will have a fine crop to sell, for it wouldn't take more than seven or eight of that kind to make a dozen.

A. M. WALDROP OPTIMISTIC REGARDING BRAZOS CROPS

In conversation with A. M. Waldrop regarding conditions in Brazos county, he stated that a ride through the Brazos bottoms convinced him that prospects for the year were the best he had seen in several years. "The only thing that can prevent old Brazos county from producing an abundant crop is for some kind of pest or overflow to ruin the growing fields, which show that the farmers have taken advantage of the pretty weather for cultivating. They are indeed beautiful." Mr. Waldrop believes that with good weather Brazos county will harvest a record crop and that business in all lines will prosper this fall.

JOHN HANWAY WEDS MISS RED OF HOUSTON

(TO BETTIE RED HANWAY.)
The world is loving you today. All that love can't express Of wishes for your happiness, of loving tenderness Is yours. June skies are blue for you and roses bloom for you, And those who know the years will make your dreams come true; And love shall walk with you through all the years you are to know; The world holds out its hands to you because it loves you so.

—Judd Mortimer Lewis.
Notable among the weddings of the season was that of last night, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Red, when their daughter, Bettie, was given in marriage to John Thomas Hanway, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hanway of Bryan, with the words of the ceremony spoken by Dr. W. S. Red of Austin, uncle of the bride. The home is admirably adapted to events of this nature and was beautifully trimmed for the wedding, the large stairway leading to the reception hall being twined with smilax gemmed with gladioli with baskets of the same blossoms making a bower of floral beauty of the hall and aiding in the charm of the picture the bridal group made when descending the stairs to the large drawing room, where the marriage vows were spoken.

An improvised altar had been arranged in the bay window, with a background of smilax curtain, against which were placed palms, tall floor baskets of gladioli and exquisite rose stivined with airy tulle over which the glow of the many candles fell softly. Throughout the room flowers and foliage made a setting of great charm. The wedding music was given by Miss Kathleen Gemmer at the piano and Miss Elva Kalb, who sang Schubert's "Serenade" with violin obligato by Dr. H. L. D. Kirkham, preceding the ceremony, the strains modulating to the "Lohengrin" march announcing the time for the ceremony.

The bride's costume was of exquisite, artistic nature, a colonial model of snowy satin with the bouffante skirt overlaid with princess lace and chiffon and the basque touched with the same rare lace. The train was of chiffon lined with lace, and over the soft folds fell the sweeping bridal veil of tulle, worn over the face and adjusted in Spanish mode with orange blossoms. Her arms were filled with a lovely shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her father, who walked with her to the altar.

The matrons of honor were Mrs. Frederick Parker, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Lawrence Parker of Bryan, sister of the bridegroom. Their gowns were beautiful creations of white satin and chiffon and they carried shower bouquets of pink peas. Miss Irel Red served her sister as maid of honor, wearing a dainty frock of white lace and georgette. She carried a shower bouquet of lavender sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Misses Hazel Gawley, Marjorie Lewis, Mildred Dargan and Lucy Reardon of Virginia, were in dainty frocks of white lace and georgette, and carried staffs topped with bouquets of pink gladioli with long streamers of pink tulle. They gave a distinctive touch to the procession by forming a pathway to the altar, which was further outlined by the small ribbon bearers, David Douglas Red, brother of the bride, and Katherine Red Parker, her niece. The ringbearer was little Miss Catherine Parker of Bryan, niece of the bridegroom, who carried the ring on a white satin pillow. The children were all in white as were the men of the bridal party. George Hanway of Dallas served his brother as best man.

The wedding collation was served after the ceremony and congratulations, the dining room having elaborate decorations of flowers and foliage, and the heart-shaped wedding cake resting on the lace spread table, with a shower of lilies of the valley depending from the center chandelier over the confection. Soft-glowing white tapers in crystal holders and mints and sweets in silver and crystal compotes, flanked the cake. Ices, frozen as bridal bliss, were served with the small cakes. The punch bowl was placed on the large screened gallery with Misses Dorothy Scott, Margaret Peden, Agnes Eute and Allen Gawley in charge. Mrs. John Morley had charge of the bride's book.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanway left during the evening for a wedding trip, after which they will be at home in Houston. The bride is traveling in a smart three-piece suit of blue braided with gray, large hat of gray with blue trimming and gray summer fur.—Houston Chronicle.

SCENES AT THE TABOR SCHOOL

The Tabor Teacherage.

Superintendent Ammons Coaching.

The effectiveness of Supt. Ammons coaching may be judged from the following write-up, clipped from the Screwdriver, student publication of the A. & M. Consolidated school, in which the reporter tells of the match:

"Time came for us to meet Tabor. When the whistle blew we were all asleep and did not know what to do. We did not get started to playing until the whistle sounded for the first half. The score was 13-0 in favor of Tabor. We got back there in the last half and played hard. McCulloch was put out on personal fouls on the last quarter J. W. Williams took his place. When the time-keeper blew his whistle for time up the score was 21-7 in Tabor's favor."

Tabor Basketball Squad.

The Tabor team, winner in its district and bi-district matches came to the State Basketball Tournament and was defeated in one of the most hotly contested games in the Tournament by one point by Athens. TABOR PREPARES FOR 'BRAZOS COUNTY DAY' A. & M. SHORT COURSE

At a joint meeting of the Tabor Welfare Club and the boys' and girls' agricultural club last Friday night the Tabor community took definite steps to get ready for Brazos County Day by electing a speaker for the occasion and by discussing plans to make the day the most profitable possible.

Miss Mary Locke Chosen

Miss Mary Locke was unanimously chosen to represent Tabor community on Brazos County Day, and it was pointed out that she would have to meet such speakers as Mrs. J. Walker Smith of Millican, Mrs. John Hensarling of Wellborn, Mrs. E. C. Martin of Kurten, and others equally as capable yet to be chosen in other communities. The far it appears as if the battle would be among women only, but per chance some community will yet select a brave son to appear on the platform with these feminine orators of Brazos. What about it Hanvey, Steep Hollow, Reliance, Edgemoor, Smetana and the rest of you?

George Holland Heard

The principal features of the boys' and girls' club meeting was a pie-eating contest in which Earl McWhorter was an easy winner over Fannie Locke, Annie Laurie Smith and Oscar Wilson, the prize being one pound of candy; practical songs, among which was the new and original song specially for Brazos County Day, and the treat of the evening was a splendid talk by George Holland, who stated that he was delighted to mix and mingle with the Tabor people about whom he had heard and read so many good things. His appeal to the club members to strive for the nobler things in life was like that of an older brother interested in the younger children in doing something really worth while in life. The accomplishments of Lincoln, Garfield and other great men were given as examples that nothing is impossible to those who have a will to succeed. Those attending the meeting from Bryan were District Agent A. W. Buchanan, A. W. Orr of Livingston Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Laura B. Roten, George Holland and County Agent Beason.

A RESOLUTION.

We, the members of Bryan Klan No. 48, Realm of Texas, duly assembled in regular meeting, being conscious of the manifold accomplishments and merits as well as the greatness of mind, nobleness of character, spirit of fraternalism and brotherly love of our deceased brother, Leonidas Johnson Rountree and further realizing that his pleasing personality, fluent speech, broad comprehension of the problems of life, thorough understanding of things as they are, clear vision of what they might be, and a well developed ability and willingness to help make them what they ought to be, naturally placed him as a leader in our ranks, as well as in other worthy avenues of life, and further comprehending that he gave of his ability, strength, time and money in the protection and development of our worthy principles for our homes, our country and our nation, as well as the perpetuity and protection of our Nations Bill of Rights; also that he was the friend of humanity and gave of his best for the education of our children and the advancement of the cause of higher education, and many other principles so vital to the welfare of our free institutions and the enlightenment and protection of our fellowmen:

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That our order, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has lost a valuable, competent leader, a worthy brother and loyal member; that his home is deprived of a loving husband and companion; that the community has lost a vital factor in the care and protection of its interests and development; that his acquaintances will miss a kind and considerate neighbor and associate; that the County, State and Government are deprived of a worthy champion and high-minded leader in the early hours of achievement; that our educational interests are bereft of a big-hearted, far-seeing, loyal champion and promoter; that the journalistic world has lost a worthy leader, and the House of Representatives is deprived of one of its most untiring and energetic defenders of the rights of the people and champions of good government; that his church and many fraternal orders will miss a consistent, worthy member and brother:

Therefore, Be It Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our order; that a copy be presented to his family; that a copy be presented to the Texas House of Representatives; that a copy be sent to the Texas Press Association; that a copy be sent to the National Editorial Association, and that a copy be printed in the local papers in this section of the State.

POISON BRAN MASH RECIPE TO KILL THE HOPPERS IN FIELDS

J. M. Kincannon of the Harvey community called on the county agent today and reported that the grasshoppers were eating up his cotton. County Agent Beason handed Mr. Kincannon the following suggestions and formula sent out by the Extension Service:

In the present emergency, this information is given to assist the farmers in controlling grasshoppers. Poison bran mash is the most practical remedy for these pests. The formula is as follows:

Wheat bran 25 lbs
White arsenic or Paris green 1 lb
Lemons, or oranges 6 lbs
Low grade syrup or molasses 2 qts
Water 2 gals.

Mix the bran and poison thoroughly while dry. Dilute the molasses with the amount of water as named, squeeze the lemon, or orange juice into this diluted molasses, then grind rind of lemons, or oranges, with meat chopper and add this also to the liquid. Then mix the liquid thoroughly with the poison bran mixture. After an even mixture has then been obtained, add more water and mix until a mash is obtained so that when squeezed in the hand it readily falls apart.

Spread Out Moist

Grass hoppers feed in the morning, and as the bait loses its attractiveness when dry, it should be applied so as to be as moist as possible at this time. If to be spread along the fence row to kill the hoppers as they come into the field, it may be applied late in the evening. Where the hoppers are at work in field, however, the application will have to be made over this field, and as it may dry out during the night, because the ground is hot and dry in the evening, it may be well to wait till morning about sun-up to apply. Where applied along fence rows to stop migration, it may be well to sow thickly. When necessary to apply to a field, sow in strips several rods wide, alternating with unsown strips of about the same width. Properly applied this poison mash is fully effective.

Do not omit the fruit, using juice and rind as divided. This is necessary to attract the insects.

THE BUCHANAN FAMILY ENJOY REUNION AT OAK GROVE SUNDAY

A delightful family reunion was enjoyed Sunday at Oak Grove, when the members of the S. B. Buchanan family met for a pleasant day together, after an absence of many years. All the surviving children were present, and the day was spent in reminiscence, and happy association. At the noon hour a bountiful dinner was spread, and around the family table, they talked again of the old days, of father and mother, passed on before, of childhood association of sacred memories, of the "days long since departed," and of days of sunshine and of shadow that had come to each of them with the years. However, it was a happy occasion for all, and a day long to be remembered by those present as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buchanan and children of Kurten; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Buchanan and sons, John and Henry, of Bryan; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Buchanan, of Bryan; R. L. Buchanan and son, S. A. BRAZOS COTTON BEST SEEN ON AUTO TRIP SAID REV. C. N. CALMES

"The very best cotton I saw on my entire auto trip of 165 miles was in Brazos county, between Bryan and Benches," said Rev. C. N. Calmes, who, with Mrs. Calmes and baby son, C. N., Jr., returned Thursday from Fort Worth, where they had been for the past ten days to attend the Jubilee Convention of the Texas Christian University.

Report Good Trip
Rev. and Mrs. Calmes report a delightful trip with no car trouble to mar their pleasure. Their first stop out of Bryan was at Sanger for a visit with Rev. Calmes sister Mrs. Sam Voss, where they spent two days enjoying home cured ham and hot biscuits, as expressed by Rev. Calmes. In Fort Worth they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Dawson, former citizens of Bryan. On their return trip to Bryan they came by Dallas to visit Mrs. J. A. Shorter, a sister of Rev. Calmes, and at Waxahachie they visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Robinson, who will be pleasantly remembered as they formerly lived in Bryan.

Indebtedness Raised
The outstanding feature of the Jubilee was the raising of the $300,000 indebtedness on the University and the pledges made for an interest-bearing endowment of $700,000. "It was indeed a time of jubilee for the past and for the embodiment of that past, in the reality of the present, with a consecration of the many sons and daughters of the institution to a fuller and broader service," said Rev. Calmes.

(From Saturday's Daily).
(C. S. Beckwith)
Going into a game over-confident, underestimating the hitting and the playing ability of the employees of Uncle Sam's postal service, the Wabblers representing the Sunday school presided over by Dr. Held went down to defeat Thursday evening by a narrow margin of 5 to 4.

Stars Brilliant Bunch.
The Postoffice Stars are composed of a bunch of brilliant lights in the local baseball world, and if their playing Thursday evening is any criterion of what they can do, they will be a stumbling block to any team aspiring to the city championship this year. The work of their hurler, Bennett, was good and the service he handed out won admiration from the local fans. The Dansby Brothers who did the battery work for the Baptists played their usual good game, and their effectiveness was responsible for the low score of the Postoffice Stars. Sam Harrison robbed the Stars of two runs when he made that sensational catch with one hand.

Postmaster Carroll.
The postmaster shut his eyes and leaned against one of Dansby's twisters and the ball shot over Marshall Bullock's head. This crash was good for a home run but you know Marvin is no Joey Ray, therefore he got as far as second base with nothing to spare.

Batteries, Baptists, Dansby and Dansby. Postoffice Stars, Bennett and Locke.

Queer Feelings

"Some time ago, I was very irregular," writes Mrs. Cora Robie, of Pikeville, Ky. "I suffered a great deal, and knew I must do something for this condition. I suffered mostly with my back and a weakness in my limbs. I would have dreadful headaches. I had hot flashes and very queer feelings, and oh, how my head hurt! I read of and of others, who seemed to have the same troubles I had, being benefited, so I began to use it. I found it most beneficial. I took several bottles . . . and was made so much better I didn't have any more trouble of this kind. It regulated me."

Cardui has been found very helpful in the correction of many cases of painful female disorders, such as Mrs. Robie mentions above. If you suffer as she did, take Cardui—a purely vegetable, medicinal tonic, in use for more than 41 years. It should help you. Sold Everywhere.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

If there be those who are pessimistic, or doubtful, as to the beauty and success which may become a part of farming in Brazos county, a visit to R. M. Nall's farm bordering Bryan on the east would certainly be convincing, at least furnish facts irrefutable, that the work on the farm may not only be remunerative but may also be such as to arouse in the mind of the tiller of the soil pardonable pride in the care and keeping of the farmstead. While Mr. Nall is mature in years he is a close student of agriculture, always looking for that which is best in both method and practice. He says that when he used to travel over the county on horse-back and observe the many phases and methods of farming, he thought it would be an easy task to make farming ideal, but experience has revealed many hidden secrets as well as furnished an opportunity to take unproductive soil and make it so fertile that now just "tickle it with a hoe and it smiles with an abundant harvest," as attested by the fine cantaloupes, water-melons, berries, corn, cotton etc. The care and keeping of barn, barnyard, tool-shed, etc., are as outstanding as the crops and the quality of work which produces them. A place for everything and everything in its place is plainly discernable from the general appearance of things about the farmstead. Barnyard manure is carefully preserved to be used on late pea patch, melons, fall garden, etc. During the severe drought some years ago, Mr. Nall demonstrated that a scratcher, or "gee whizz" cultivator, was far more advantageous in cultivating corn than any other implement, the scratcher cultivated corn making more than three times the other.

Standard Bred Eggs.

W. B. Burns of Keith, Grimes county, called on County Agent Beason Saturday to make inquiry as to available standard-bred eggs for hatching purposes. The county agent not only directed the visitor to places where quality eggs might be had, but soon the song of "Lady Leghorn" surrounded by thousands of her sister hens and their records of egg production as told by the poultryman, had made the visitor "see visions" of the possibilities in the poultry industry and quickly exchanged his money for Brazos county eggs.

Disaster For the One-Crop Farmer.

The Furrow, third number, has many helpful suggestions concerning those practices that make for better farming, among them being fall plowing, crop rotation, diversified farming, etc. In speaking of the change in Wisconsin, The Furrow says: "Diversified farming is responsible for the marked prosperity of all the people, rural and urban, of the old Badger State. Wisconsin's transformation from an agricultural derelict into a paradise of plenty has been made possible wholly through diversified farming in its most complete sense." Diversified farming is just another way of saying: "Don't put all your eggs in one basket." You may get by for a time, but sooner or later the unforeseen, not to say the unexpected, will happen and disaster will be written across the pathway of the one-crop farmer.

Fryers Bring High Price.

A few days ago Z. L. Jones, Route 6 brought 18 fryers, weighing 34 pounds, to Bryan and sold them to a local dealer for $10.20. This is more than 50c each for chickens about two months old; 100 such chickens sold each month for six months in the year would go a long way toward paying for the things the farm table necessarily has to buy, such as coffee, sugar, flour, etc.

Mrs. Franze Makes Record.

Mrs. R. Franze's report on poultry project for the quarter ending on April 30, shows a net income of $61.74. This record was on 82 hens during February and March and 57 hens during April. Since this report was made, Mrs. Franze's sale on fryers to one local dealer has totaled over $160.00. These fryers represent the culls on Mrs. Franze's poultry yard, the choice birds being retained for breeding stock next year. This is a good report and indicates that the Franze poultry industry will be in the forefront when Brazos county is known far and wide for its fine and profitable poultry.

A. & M. Summer Session.

County Agent Beason is in receipt of announcement of The Farm Boys' Division of the Summer Session at A. & M. College, July 2-28. The announcement states that "the object of this course is to offer to boys not under 14 or over 18 years of age, elementary, but practical courses in subjects relating to farm life. A large majority of the farm boys in Texas have not had access to schools of sufficient grade to enable them to enter the more advanced college courses, and it is to meet their needs for practical instruction in agriculture that the Farm Boys' Division has been added to the work of the Summer Session." The work will embrace Agricultural Engineering, or demonstrating the use of farm tractors, gas engines, farm machinery, construction of farm terraces, etc. Agronomy, including demonstrations and lectures on tillage, use of fertilizers and manures, seed selection, crop rotation, etc.; Animal Husbandry, Dairy Husbandry, Horticulture, and Poultry Husbandry. The work in poultry husbandry will include a study of the important phases of the industry as it applies to conditions on the farms of the State. Such matters as feeding, breeding, housing, incubation, judging and marketing of poultry will be given special attention. There are many boys in Brazos county between the ages of 14 and 18 who should take advantage of this golden opportunity to improve themselves, to store their mind with useful information ready when life's duties and responsibilities come, be the calling in life what it may. Several hundred boys from over Texas will attend this Summer Session here in Brazos county. How many Brazos county boys will be in attendance? Think it over with your boy and help him attend this summer school right here at his door.

Help Put Brazos First.

As a result of the fine team work of the Memphis, Tenn., Chamber of Commerce and the County Agents of that section the Memphis trade territory claims the most prosperous farm section in the United States. Chas. J. Haase, chairman, bureau of farm development, says, in the Memphis Chamber of Commerce Journal, May: "During the spring of 1922 the Bureau and County Agents put on an active campaign among the farmers to diversify, to raise their corn and hay, to grow feed and food to supplement cotton with the cow, sow, and hen. To use better seed, prepare their land better, to fight the boll weevil with a poison and fertilizer. The farmers who took the advice now have a few dairy cows, a brood sow and a flock of chickens and are well on the way to prosperity and some of the results are summed up as follows: The Memphis trade territory produced last year:

Product	Value
500,000 tons cotton seed	$25,000,000
90,000,000 bu. corn	$90,000,000
4,200,000 bu. sweet po.	$4,500,000
33,000,000 head poultry	$9,500,000
3,600,000 doz. eggs	$1,440,000
1,488,000 lbs. butter fat	$744,000
Vegetables sold in Mem.	348,000
Total	$131,532,000
1,000,000 bales cotton	$125,000,000

What others can do, Brazos county can do, and do it better. Help put Brazos county first.

Terraced Lands Pay.

Carl Jones of the Reliance neighborhood said, on calling at the County Agent's office some days ago, that his land terraced a year or two ago works much better and promises much greater crops. This particular land referred to was not suffering from erosion as much as it was being damaged by water coming from other parts of the farm and standing on this particular field. The terraces kept this water out of low or flat lands.

Henry Kurten sows broadcast milo, etc., at last plowing of corn, finding that such a crop is fine for turkeys in late summer and early fall.

With the good season it is a fine time to plant peas, peanuts, sorghum, etc. Prepare now to cut field bills.
